Celebrating Children
The Nothing Poem

Celebrating Children

When children come home at the end of the day,
The question they're asked as they scurry to play
Is, "Tell me, what did you do today?"
And the answer they give makes you sigh with dismay
"Nothing, I did nothing today!"
Perhaps nothing means that I observed a bird's nest,
Or counted to ten with Mrs. West.
Maybe I painted a picture of red and blue,
Or heard a story about a mouse that flew.
Maybe today was the very first time
That my scissors followed a very straight line.
Maybe I led a song from beginning to end,
Or played with a special brand new friend.
When you're only 5 and your heart has wings,
NOTHING can mean so many things!

A LETTER FROM THE DIRECTOR

Our weather has felt like summer one day and fall the next day. The Family Fun Night was inside due to the chance of rain. It was still a great evening filled with singing, dancing, and good company. No matter the weather our school is filled with learning and discovery. You will have a chance to talk to your teacher at conferences October 13th. The scholastic book fair will be part of the conferences. Reward your child with a new book.
