I Did Nothing Today

Author Unknown

When getting your nose at the end of the day,
The question has to asked as they rub my nose,
Is "Did you do anything today, did you?"
And the answer is, "No, nothing, I did nothing today!"

Perhaps "nothing" means that I read a book,
Or with a teacher I got to work,
Maybe I painted a picture of fish,
Or read a story to know that I'm,

Maybe I wrote in my journal or not,
Or looked a good book on the library shelf,
Maybe I helped a friend today,
Or went to my favorite area of school,

Maybe today was the best day of school,
That my classes followed a true lesson plan,
Maybe I sang a song right in class,
Or worked with a special friend and friend,

When you're there, then, or else, you'll never know why,
And "nothing" can mean so many things!

A Letter From the Director

I cannot express my gratitude and thankfulness for all the support of families to help our school be open. It has been great to be able to have children learning and growing in our school. We will be setting goals together at conferences on October 6th. We will be singing together on the 30th & 31st. Feel free to email or call any time if you have questions. Marie
